DIESEL FIREMEN STRIKE FOR EXTRA MAN, CRIPPLE FOUR RAIL LINES

Strikers picket gate at New York Central's big Collinwood yards in Cleveland.

FOUR MAJOR RAILROADS have been crippled as 18,000 members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen strike to enforce demands for two firemen instead of one on multiple-unit Diesel engines. The walkout halted most operations on the Santa Fe and Southern railroads, on the Pennsylvania west of Harrisburg and on the New York Central west of Buffalo as picket lines were established. Rail officials said the strike might spread to other lines.

Layoffs Spread As Railway Strike Stymies Industry

Death Toll 22 As Northwest Floods Continue

9 Still Missing In Nebraska; Winnipeg Situation Serious

By The Associated Press
Floods continued to menace parts of North Dakota, Minnesota and Southern Manitoba today as the death toll in the flash floods that swept over southeastern Nebraska mounted to 22.

Search continued in Nebraska for the bodies of nine persons reported missing and presumed dead. Thirteen bodies had been recovered. As floodwaters receded, communities surveyed the damage, estimated at hundreds of thousands of dollars.

In Winnipeg, the flood situation appeared more serious. One-eighth of the city of some 350,000 population was under water. Muddy waters from the Red River and other streams poured out over more than 500 square miles of southern Manitoba. A train carrying 550 Winnipeg-bound refugees was marooned by a track washout near Winnipeg but was not endangered.

More than 2,000 persons left Winnipeg in response to an official appeal for the city's 200,000 women and children to voluntarily move to less crowded points of safety. Officials were making plans for compulsory mass evacuation, if necessary. There were no casualties.

The Red River rose only 23 feet in 24 hours at Grand Forks, N. D., and City Engineer A. F. Hulteng said he "hopes this is the crest." Four National Guard planes flew over the flood area seeking isolated cases of disaster.

In northeastern Minnesota, the community of Floodwood was 75 per cent flooded by the St. Louis River. At Minneapolis City Engineer Hugo Erickson said the Mississippi River was at its highest level since 1881.

After two days of torrential rains, creeks and streams in eastern and south central Oklahoma spilled into a least seven communities and forced residents to flee their homes.

There were more showers and thunderstorms in Oklahoma and western Texas and light rain from eastern Kansas eastward across Missouri to southern Indiana. Heavy falls were reported in western Texas.

The rest of the country had fair weather.

Mines Shut Down, Other Industry Hit; No End In Sight

CHICAGO, May 11—(AP)—Unemployment mounted swiftly today as coal mining and other industry began feeling the effects of the strike of locomotive firemen on four key rail systems.

With no peace moves under way or announced, prospects for early peace were dim.

Fourteen major mines in Western Pennsylvania, including those owned by the Bethlehem Steel Corp., closed down. There were no empty gondolas to carry coal away. The shutdowns forced 4,400 miners into idleness.

Several other mines were operating a half day. Some mines attempted to keep operating by dumping coal on the ground, but such space was limited.

Mine officials said all Western Pennsylvania's 55,000 miners may be idle next week if the strike continues.

At Cleveland, C. F. Weigle, general manager of the New York Central's west division, said 25,000 rail workers now are on strike or have been laid off in the system. About 10 per cent of the idle are employees engaged in such non operating tasks as clerical work.

The Fisher body plant at Cleveland issued temporary furloughs yesterday to 2,500 employees but called 1,500 of them back today. One thousand employees of the Midland Steel Products Co. in Cleveland were laid off yesterday, but nearly all were recalled today.

The crippling walkout, which started yesterday, directly involved only 18,000 firemen. But thousands of other rail workers—maybe as many as 200,000—may be idle if there is not a quick settlement. Countless other thousands are expected to be made idle by a strike.

A third of the country's rail passengers and a fifth of the rail freight movement was disrupted. The tieup caused cancellation of service on at least five other lines. Bus and airlines reported a big increase in business.

"I believe the Columbia Valley Administration is a necessary next step in the sensible, democratic development of the resources of the Northwest," Mr. Truman said. "I believe the people of this area think so, too."

"And when they make their voices heard, I am sure the Columbia Valley Administration will be established."

Prank Backfires As Youth Tampers With Patrol Car

The moral to this story is: Don't fool around with a policeman's car.

Joe D. Kleitzly, 20, of R. D. 3, Salem, learned the lesson the hard way early this morning. While loafing with six friends at the Old Reliable Dairy drive-in on E. State st. at 1 a. m., Kleitzly noticed a State Highway Patrol car pull in and the patrolman go in the restaurant.

While the patrolman was inside the drive-in, Kleitzly wriggled under the Ford cruiser and manipulated the gears, changing the setup so that the car would only move forward and so the gears couldn't be shifted.

The patrolman quickly noticed the difficulty when he got back in his car. He also noticed the seven youths standing nearby, giggling. He called them over and started to question them when a neighbor called to him and put the finger on Kleitzly. He said he had seen him crawl under the car.

The patrolman made Kleitzly restore the car to its original condition and then accompanied him to the city jail. He was tried this morning for "tampering with a state patrol car" and was slapped with a 90-day suspended sentence and a $50 fine by Mayor Harry Vincent. He also was put on probation for the 90-day period.

Just a case of playing with the wrong car at the right time.

Cheap Public Power One Of Truman's Goals

Says He's Determined To Overcome Foes Of Nation-Wide Program

GRAND COULEE DAM, Wash., May 11—(AP)—President Truman declared today his determination to develop low-cost public power on all the country's great rivers and fight against its use "for private profit."

"We have embarked, all over the country, on the task of fully developing our resources for all the people," he said.

"And we shall have to continue to overcome the opposition of those who do not understand the greatness of our goal, or who fear the impairment of their selfish interests."

"We will meet opposition from the private power groups. Many of them—there are honorable exceptions, of course—do not want the energy of our rivers put to use as power and sold to the people at cost."

The President spoke out sharply against the opposition of private power companies to rural electrification and other local public agencies constructing transmission lines for the delivery and sale of power purchased at dam sites at cost. He said their opposition "is wrong."

The President laid down his public power development program in a prepared address for dedication ceremonies at the site of Grand Coulee Dam, where the last turbine has been cut in.

He predicted ultimate congressional approval of the proposed Columbia valley Administration to take over the operation of Grand Coulee and other power and reclamation projects in the valley.

"I believe the Columbia Valley Administration is a necessary next step in the sensible, democratic development of the resources of the Northwest," Mr. Truman said. "I believe the people of this area think so, too."

"And when they make their voices heard, I am sure the Columbia Valley Administration will be established."

Gunmen Get $16,000 Payroll

Cleveland Brewery Cash Is Taken

CLEVELAND, May 11—(AP)—Three masked gunmen brazenly swept into the Standard Brewing Co. office today, grabbed $16,000 in payroll money and dashed away.

The money had just been delivered to the second floor office, neatly inserted in pay envelopes, by a Brinks Express Co. truck. Two of the robbers were masked in brown stocking caps. The third had a white handkerchief over his face.

All three brandished 45 automatic pistols at the office staff of five women and three men.

The bandits' stolen car later was found abandoned on W. 53rd and Train ave., carrying painted over 1949 license plates.

To get to the brewery firm of office, the robbers had to clamber up 35 steps. Then they vaulted over a six foot glass and wood partition.

One shoved the switchboard operator, Mrs. Gertrude Skehan, 45, out of the way and took over her duties. A second took station by the door which he locked. The third reached for the inner office for the cash.

Arthur B. Kenat, assistant office manager, turned the money over in a cardboard box, used by Brinks for delivery. The rest of the office staff sat at their desks, their hands stretched high.

CAA Urges Muny Airport For Salem

Salem needs a Class Two municipal airport, in the opinion of the Civil Aeronautics Administration.

The CAA, acting under the federal Airport Act of 1946, issued a list of 101 new airports for Ohio which, it states, would cost a total of $15,860,000. Improvements to 34 existing fields would cost $14,652,000.

The recommendation for Salem is a Class Two airport which would have a landing strip of from 2700 to 3700 feet.

According to the CAA announcement a new airport site has been selected by local officials. Existing fields are the Salem airport operated by Earl Grate several miles east of the city and the Miller field near North Benton.

Carpenters To Build Scaffold For Blitz Painting Of Home

Prospects that the "blitz" painting of Mrs. Mildred Vaughan's home Sunday will be even more intensive became evident today when Salem's union carpenters agreed to build scaffolding prior to the operation. Lumber and other materials will be furnished by the Peoples Lumber Co.

The blitz is becoming more extensive too, as local union electricians volunteered to go through the house at 335 W. Ninth st. Saturday to make any needed electrical changes or additions with material supplied by the Firestone Electric Co.

Neighbors of Mrs. Vaughan, led by Neal Strabley and Fred Glass, will ready the home exterior for the painters Friday and Saturday by repairing and replacing sections of the frame construction which are unserviceable through long wear.

'Billy' Umstead Retires At Mullins After 53 Years

After 53 consecutive years of employment with the Mullins Manufacturing Co., William "Billy" Umstead, 72, has retired to a life of contentment and relaxation.

Billy, who lives at 312 E. Eighth st. with his wife, Julia, first went to work for Mullins in 1897 when he was 19 years old. At that time Mullins specialized in stauary and cornice work and he was put to work as an apprentice in the cornice shop at the magnificent wage of seven and one-half cents an hour.

Mullins was turning out metal roofing and elaborate cornice work for homes and public buildings. Their ornamental work can be found today on the Naval Academy buildings at Annapolis, on public library buildings in Boston, California and Hawaii.

Public taste in architecture soon changed, however, and Umstead moved to the boat shop where he worked on the metal boats developed by Mullins.

These boats accompanied Admiral Peary on two of his North Pole expeditions. Billy says, "I couldn't say for sure, but it's just possible that I might have worked on those very boats."

Later, he worked on metal auto parts made by the firm and also worked on metal signs, which were considered to be an outstanding medium. He worked in the sign shop for a time making metal pickles for the H. J. Heinz Co. The largest order he remembers was for a pickle 100 feet long, which was mounted on the Heinz factory in Pittsburgh.

Until 1928 Mullins excelled in the stauary business and during that period Billy Umstead watched the creation of the famous bronze statue of "Diana," which was to stand over Madison Square Garden and has since been moved to the city of Washington.

Courage Fails Well Digger, Dies In Agony

NEW YORK, May 11—(AP)—A guy with a lot of courage—trapped for more than 27 hours at the bottom of a well shaft—died in agony late yesterday shortly after rescuers finally reached him.

Well-digger Dominick Atteio was game at the end.

But burns, pain, exhaustion and the pressure of rocks and earth were more than his strong frame could stand.

Atteio, 49-year-old father of six children, died five minutes before he was lifted out of his tomb 20 feet beneath a Brooklyn garage.

Doctors said Atteio—crushed, seared and half-blinded—put up an almost superhuman show of courage.

Atteio's attractive, 32-year-old second wife, Marie, became hysterical when her long vigil of prayers and tears ended in despair.

"What am I going to do without him?" she cried. "He was the most wonderful man in the world, and so brave."

Atteio, a contractor, had been digging the well under the garage seeking water for washing automobiles. Use of city water for that purpose is banned during the current shortage.

A cavein trapped him early Tuesday afternoon. And he was badly burned later in a flareup when a lighted cigarette lowered to him came in contact with oxygen being pumped down the shaft.

NLRB Change Faces Battle

Foes Want Counsel Separate From Board

WASHINGTON, May 11—(AP)—The Senate dug in today for a fight over whether to kill President Truman's plan depriving the general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board of his independent powers.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio), leading the battle against the reorganization proposal, predicted it would be dead, possibly by nightfall. By law, either the Senate or House alone can junk a reorganization plan, if a majority of its members vote against proposal.

The NLRB plan would abolish the office of General Counsel Robert N. Denham and transfer his functions to the five-member board.

Taft won an initial victory yesterday when the Senate voted, 50 to 22, to lay aside a motion to take up a Fair Employment practices (FEPC) bill and to turn instead to his resolution to disapprove the reorganization plan.

Taft told reporters he figured he would lose five of the 50 votes he got to take up his resolution, because he drew support from some southern Democrats who are against the FEPC bill but who will not oppose the reorganization plan.

On the other hand, he said he expected to pick up 10 votes from Senators who were absent yesterday. That would be enough to put his resolution over.

Democratic Leader Lucas of Illinois, who opposed shoving the FEPC motion aside, declined any prediction. A vote may be taken in the late afternoon.

More Facts Revealed

Official Says U. S. 'Knows'
Real Story On Baltic Incident

WASHINGTON, May 11—(AP)—The United States won't be surprised if Moscow eventually produces an alleged confession from a crew member of the American Navy plane lost in the Baltic April 8.

A government official in a position to know said this today on the basis of what he asserted to be American "knowledge" that Russia made prompt efforts to salvage remnants of the plane and to pick up its 10 occupants, dead or alive.

He said also the U. S. "knows" the following facts:

(1) Four Russian fighters opened fire from the rear of the slower moving American patrol plane;

(2) The attack took place over the Baltic Sea "more than 30 miles" from the coast of Russian occupied territory;

(3) The plane was on fire before it hit the water.

This official said the government would not reveal how it got this information because it would give vital information to Russia. He said he did not know whether the Russians had any success in finding the plane or its occupants.

He agreed with navy officers who said yesterday that the chance of survival for any of the crew members was "very remote."

He recalled, however, that Communist authorities customarily wring confessions from political prisoners and foreigners involved in incidents.

American searchers, assisted by the Scandinavians, have found no trace of the Navy crewmen in the Baltic and have picked up only secondary pieces of equipment of types the plane is known to have carried.

"Either farmers must write their own farm program or be at the mercy of every panacea and crackpot scheme proposed by politicians," C. Maurice Wieting, vice president of the Ohio Farm Bureau, said Monday when he spoke at the Public Library here.

"Farmers are dissatisfied with the present farm legislation but they have not decided what kind of a farm bill they need," Wieting said.

The meeting here, attended by 100 persons, was the last in a series of eight sponsored by the Farm Bureau over the state. Farm leaders from 12 counties attended.

Ohio Adjusts To Rail Strike; Industry Banks On Trucks

CLEVELAND, May 11—(AP)—Industry, mail dispatchers, and travelers in Ohio were getting adjusted today to the firemen's strike which has halted New York Central and Pennsylvania Railroad operations within the state.

Temporary furloughs were issued yesterday to 2,500 employees at Fisher Body Division of General Motors Corp. and another 1,000 workers at Midland Steel Products Co., one of the nation's largest makers of automobile frames.

But almost all the Midland workers were recalled early today and 1,500 of the Fisher plant workers also reported back to duty.

The danger of later lay-offs in industry remains however, if trucks are unable to keep up with removal of finished products which normally would move over the struck railroads.

The Chesapeake and Ohio railway last night restored to service six passenger trains into and from Washington, D. C.—the east and west trips of the fast Flying Virginian, the Sportsman and the George Washington. Sleeping car service between Washington and New York also was resumed. The C. and O. had cancelled these trains because they used Southern railroad tracks, and the Southern is one of the roads against which the firemen walked out. Firemen later agreed to operate C. and O. trains over Southern tracks.

The C. and O.'s coal-hauling from Columbus to Toledo boomed because of the strike. Coal which the Norfolk and Western brings into Columbus for shipment to Toledo's lake docks by the Pennsylvania and New York Central now can be handled out of Columbus only by the C. and O.

In addition to the New York Central and Pennsylvania coal docks at Toledo, ore unloading operations were tied up at N. Y. C. docks at Toledo and Ashtabula and at Pennsylvania docks here at Sandusky and Erie, Pa.

Except for making such delicacies as early watermelon and the first Louisiana strawberries scarcer, the food situation here in the state's largest city appeared unlikely to change much because of the strike. Much of the foodstuff is trucked in normally.

A statewide truck network was established by the post office. It called for two round trips daily to Detroit, Columbus, Salem, Akron and Canton. Mail was to be exchanged at Columbus with Cincinnati.

The Erie railroad, hard-pressed for locomotives to move ore, has been dragging out some retired coal-burning locomotives.

The New York Central's Pace-maker, manned by supervisory personnel, left here 33 minutes late last night enroute from Chicago to New York. It is the only New York Central passenger train stopping here under the road's reduced schedule. Pickets made no effort to interfere as 61 passengers boarded the train.

The New York Central's two regularly scheduled mail trains from New York to Chicago and

Happy Is The Day When Backache Goes Away

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

the two from Chicago to New York were also operating, but running three to four hours late because the number of cars has been doubled.

NAMED PASTOR

CLEVELAND May 11—(AP)—Euclid Ave. Baptist Church members last night called upon their director of Christian Work, Rev. John J. Wilkes, to become church pastor, succeeding Dr. Bernard C. Clausen, who resigned. Rev. Wilkes came to the Euclid Ave. Church in Jan., 1949, after three years as pastor at Glenville Baptist Church.

DISCUSS IMPORTS

WASHINGTON, May 11—(AP)—Ohio Congressmen participated yesterday in a discussion with Pennsylvania and West Virginia representatives about imports on domestic industries. Rep. Secrest (D-Ohio) arranged a general meeting for May 16, when higher tariffs, peril point embargoes and protective proposals of other kinds will be discussed.

Public Issue In Rail Strike

AS IS TRUE in most strike situations, the strikers do not care what the public thinks about the issue that has tied up the railroads. The strike is a bald, cold showdown on the ability of a strong union, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, to impose an arbitrary demand on employers. The union does not depend on goodwill to fortify its case. It is relying wholly on its ability to bring the employers and the public to heel.

Nevertheless, there is a public issue in the rail strike. Or rather, there is a public challenge to minimize the damage one union will try to do to the national economy. It is the same challenge which has been presented by other unions in similar circumstances—the challenge presented most recently by United Mine Workers.

It is up to the public to demonstrate that it can survive the stoppage of service brought about by a few thousand men asserting their right to strike. That has become a prime public necessity in the United States. Either the public must prove it can protect itself against the strike weapon, or it must admit it is at the mercy of anyone who uses the weapon.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen can do great damage. But it is doubtful if the damage will be conclusive, thanks to the existence of alternate means of transportation.

Racketeer-Rich

SENATOR FERGUSON of Michigan, favored by many Republicans, was passed over when appointments to the special senate committee to investigate organized crime were made. But he has stepped into a ready-made role. He will be the offstage voice. This may give him more leeway than he would have had as a member of the committee.

His first offstage remark, for what it may be worth, is that the official investigators will be looking into the affairs of the "new rich" in America. These are the slick operators who tap the gold mines of gambling and organized crime, paying minimum taxes and laying by maximum loot. The trick then is to get the loot invested in something respectable because crime—in the long run—doesn't pay. People like this, Senator Ferguson points out, are not peanuts. They have much to lose if the senate investigators get too nosy. Therefore, they will try to sidetrack the investigation by throwing its snappers a few hunks of raw meat. That will give the "new rich" time to put more space between them and the investigators, also more time to cover up their tracks.

Senator Ferguson was a Republican choice for a place on the senate's special committee because he is an investigator of proved ability. Vice President Barkley named Senator Tobey of New Hampshire and Senator Wiley of Wisconsin to represent the minority party instead. The majority party will be represented by Senators Kefauver of Tennessee, O'Connor of Maryland and Hunt of Wyoming. It's a safe bet, however, that Senator Ferguson will play a leading part in keeping the spotlight on the racketeer-rich who have been edging themselves into undue influence, including influence over political parties, with special attention to the Democratic party because it specializes in big-city machine politics.

There Goes Economy

THE Senate Postoffice Committee has voted unanimously for a resolution directing the Postmaster General to cancel his recent economy drive. One effect would have been to reduce residential mail deliveries to one a day and cut down the number of deliveries in business areas. It was charged promptly that this was designed to hit public convenience where it would hurt most and thereby produce such an outcry that the Postoffice Department would not be expected to worry about economy for a long time to come. The charge may be true, but it's unlikely that Congress will find out.

In any event, the outcry was forthcoming. The Senate Postoffice Committee has called off the dogs. This probably means there will be no federal money saved at the expense of the Postoffice Department in the 12 months beginning next July 1. It probably means that the whole economy issue is dead as far as the 81st Congress is concerned.

What the United States needs is an economy program that will not take away a single penny or prerogative from anybody. Anyone hearing of such a program should wire his nearest Congressman without delay. It's the only way politicians ever will be able to have the country's financial resources and spend them too, the heavenly parlay that Congressmen dream about just before election.

Cheer up, ladies! During spring house cleaning you may find some things that have been missing since fall house cleaning.

German Problems

By PETER EDSON

U. S. Trying To Solve Them As Time Runs Out

WASHINGTON
BIGGEST problem before the Council of Foreign Ministers meeting in London this month is, of course, Germany. But it would be rashly overoptimistic to expect that any prescription for a panacea will be written by U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson, British Foreign Minister Bevin, French Foreign Minister Schuman, their experts and dividers.

This may be in the nature of bad Washington news. Both the U. S. Senate and House have under consideration resolutions to investigate American occupation policy in Germany. A somewhat negative result from London may only aggravate this demand for a probe. So after Secretary Acheson gets home from London at the end of May, he may be in for another rough going-over in the merry month of June.

The American position on German affairs is somewhat peculiar. The French are traditionally suspicious of anything German—any increase in German power. The British, beset by an austerity program at home, question anything which may cost them money abroad. So while the British and French drag their heels on doing anything to improve Germany, the U. S. government pushes for action.

AMERICAN planners figure they have from six months to two years for getting the German house in order. This is in accord with General Douglas MacArthur's frequently expressed belief that no occupation has succeeded for more than five years. History shows, says General MacArthur, that after that time the morale of the occupying power is sapped and its influence over the occupied country dissipated. If General MacArthur's five-year occupation theory holds good for the Russians too, then it would be to their interest to get out of Germany as an occupying power. And as a matter of fact, a Russian proposition to withdraw its forces from eastern Germany is expected before the end of 1950. It might even include a separate peace offer. When such an offer comes, America, Britain and France must be prepared to meet it and match it. That is why the decisions reached at London by the Foreign Ministers should be positive and progressive.

The German problem may now be said to break down three ways. First is to establish a stable government for western Germany. Second is to bring this government into partnership with the other western European countries. Third is to establish some formula for dealing with the east-west German unification demands. U. S. High Commissioner John Jay McCloy and his British and French co-commissioners have been having their trouble in recent months with the west German government at Bonn. The High Commission announced when the Bonn government was set up, that on purely local German matters there would be minimum interference.

Yet when this Bonn government passed income tax and civil service laws which were not considered sound, the High Commission vetoed them. The Germans complained bitterly that this was interference in their domestic affairs. The High Commission made the veto stick, however, and the German government promptly came up with new laws more to the western Allies' liking. There is one view that this is the right way to deal with the Germans—to be tough with them.

THE matter of bringing western Berlin into the Bonn government is now snarled by internal German politics. German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer apparently does not favor too close an alliance with Berlin because its Socialist vote might upset his government. But closer integration of west Berlin with western Germany is one subject to which Allied Foreign Ministers may have to pay attention.

Admission of west Germany to the Council of Europe is assured, though the Council does not have much power. Germany is now represented in the OEEC—Organization for European Economic Co-operation—which handles Marshall Plan allocations.

The Germans have been invited to send consular officers to the U. S. and OEEC countries, but have taken no action for some what mysterious reasons. They may be holding out for full diplomatic recognition.

The Big Three are agreed on no re-armament for western Germany, though it is being promoted by military leaders. It may come eventually, but no decision on it may be expected in London. There is now no thought of withdrawing Allied armies of occupation.

A new policy statement on unification of eastern-western Germany is likewise unlikely. This is now largely a propaganda talking point for the Communists. The west German proposal for a free election on unification will not be accepted by the east Germans because it will not give the Russians the kind of German unity they want—namely a Communist-controlled Germany which would be a satellite.

Parking Problem

By TRUMAN TWILL

EVERYTHING spoken or written about the automobile parking problem is interesting. Some of the ideas put forth by the experts are sound, as far as they go. But they don't go very far. They show no imagination. What the experts need to do is visit one of those crowded apartment-house districts in New York City where the natives learned how to handle their parking problem years ago. Very few of them own automobiles, because there is no place to keep them and no room to operate them. But nearly all of them have baby buggies.

If nothing had been done about baby buggies, there would have been so much space taken up by these contraptions that no one could have moved. On a warm day when most of the buggies are put into use they are a problem in traffic congestion almost as tough as the one presented by automobile traffic. But the rest of the time the baby buggies are no problem at all. Why? Because nearly all of them are collapsible. They can be folded up and stored in a broom closet. They can be handled without much more trouble than a sackful of groceries when they are knocked down to minimum size. And that, obviously, is what automobile designers will have to do.

They will have to figure out how to make an automobile that occupies about 15 feet of space the long way when in motion compress itself into a third of that length when parked. This will be done—when it finally is done—by virtue of those ingenious little motors which now cause the tops on convertibles to disappear into the bulk of the car.

A motorist preparing to park his go-devil will climb out, push a button and the contraption will telescope itself. The engine will slide back into the space occupied by the driver and his front-seat companions. The rear section will slip forward into the space ordinarily reserved for backseat drivers.

Another button will cause four little wheels to descend, like the wheels on a retractable landing gear for an airplane, and a little lever will make it possible to guide the condensed jalopy into a parking space. And there will go the parking problem and all the worries attendant thereto—the high price of building streets for parked cars, the high price of providing off-street parking when the streets won't hold any more cars and the gradual decline of property values in areas choked with so many automobiles standing still that no one can get where he wants to go or do what he wants to do.

This won't happen in the lifetime of anyone now living, unless he lives for another hundred years. But it's bound to happen eventually. It's in the cards. If it is possible to stack up collapsible airplanes on the deck of an aircraft carrier, to build a collapsible bicycle and to solve the baby-buggy problem in the world's largest city, it is possible to do something about reducing the size of automobiles when they are not in use.

The idea is available without charge to anyone caring to use it. In the meantime, does anyone have anything to suggest about the best way to jam a 15-foot automobile into a 5-foot space?

Disproving Baseless Charges

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON
"LEFT WINGERS" and a good many neutral people who have been impressed by the arguments about the unfairness of congressional committees, and particularly of Senator McCarthy, now want to choke him off altogether or abolish congressional immunity—as if this wouldn't raise many a suspicion among the totalitarians that free debate and a slugging match of political invectives are too much for tolerance in free America.

Some were when the Democrats dished it out to Herbert Hoover in one of the most efficiently organized smears in political history. Time was when the "left wingers" carried on dozens of congressional investigations and attempted to convict business men and bankers as a class—and when even the President of the United States used his exalted post to exhort those who didn't agree with him. The "right wing" didn't come up with any proposals then to end congressional investigations or to abolish congressional immunity. Bad as the smear business was, the "right wing" respected constitutional rights.

A LOT of righteous indignation is being expressed on the subject of the damage being done by the McCarthy inquiry. The great good fortune of the "left wing" really is that someone as extreme as the Wisconsin senator is handling the prosecution. Given one-tenth of the evidence that McCarthy has brought forth, the powers of skillful demolition such as were possessed by the late Senator James Reed of Missouri, Democrat, or the late Senator Tom Walsh of Montana, Democrat, or former Senator Burt Wheeler of Montana, still active in the law practice here, would have made a better case out of the strange influences at work in developing America's policy in China in recent years. Nor would there be any outcries today about squelching United States senators.

Incidentally, it was another Wisconsin senator, the late Robert M. La Follette, who aroused the ire of the country by his anti-war speeches in 1917, and 1918, and there was talk of finding a way to silence him. But the senate didn't move into totalitarian paths then, and it probably will not do so now. The truth about Senator McCarthy is that he rushed in without taking up such an important crusade with his fellow Republican senators. He was put on the defensive the moment he made his charges. Senator Lucas of Illinois, Democratic leader, goaded him into naming names. Both men should have exercised more control and insisted that the Senate Foreign Relations Committee make the inquiry without publicity.

Today the country is confused. The loud denunciations which have now been turned toward the Wisconsin senator have convinced many of his supporters that a whitewash has been in progress or that Senator Tydings of Maryland, an aspirant for second place on the Truman ticket in 1952, has gotten the hearings into an unnecessary tangle.

ACTUALLY the Maryland senator has been up against one of the toughest assignments in his career. No matter what tack he takes, he is subjected to bitter criticism from those who think he is holding back or protecting somebody.

Administration senators could have ended the McCarthy crusade almost at the beginning by requiring that the Wisconsin senator become a member of a special committee and by insisting that this committee then hold its sessions in secret. This would have given the Wisconsin senator every opportunity to prove his case to his fellow senators without at the same time involving innocent persons in public smears.

What is needed now is a separate court to handle loyalty questions. Congress is too political to prosecute the real culprits and too political to give clearance to those who may have been accused by mere association. Loyalty boards are part-time affairs anyway. The question is too important to be given such casual treatment. A panel of federal judges, with a staff of its own, could dispose of loyalty cases on a judicial basis and everyone would be inclined to accept such judgments. Today even a loyalty board's clearance doesn't always get political clearance.

The cure for a rash of congressional accusations is to be found in a thorough probe of the charges rather than in trying to shut off the accusers. The only way to deal with baseless charges is really to prove them baseless. (Reproduction Rights Reserved)

So They Say

With the problems facing the United States in the field of foreign relations it is most important that every effort be made to maintain a true bipartisan foreign policy.

—President Truman.

I am gravely concerned with the status of American foreign policy in Asia and the deteriorating situation in that continent in the cold war.

—Harold E. Stassen.

I am confident that a number of excise taxes put on during the war will be completely repealed, while others will be partially repealed.

Slot Crazy

By HAL BOYLE

Everyone Plays 'Em In Butte

BUTTE, MONT.
YOU HAVE TO BE careful about shaking hands with dear old ladies in this town. They may crush your fingers. How do they get such a powerful grip? Working the lever on slot machines.

There is a kind of almost season at present on the more open forms of gambling in Montana. But the slot machines clock merrily on. They make so much noise they drown out the juke boxes, which is a kind of blessing.

Nothing so typifies the "easy come, easy go" philosophy of this frontier mining camp than its fondness for slot machines. There are about 50 churches in Butte and its environs, 100 saloons, and a minimum of 750 slot machines to serve a population of 50,000. That means there is a slot machine for every 60 people.

THEY ARE POPULAR with all types. Playing a battery of four machines, you may see a wealthy businessman, a young housewife, a dear old lady with a muffler over her head, and a bar fly—all lined up democratically together seeking the elusive jackpot.

It is a silent and not very social pastime. The players rarely say a word to one another, but stare intently at the whirling wheels with a glazed look. Occasionally an angry player, his coins gone, will kick a machine, or shake it vigorously. The machine doesn't kick back. But it doesn't cough up any dough either. There are machines to take every coin minted by Uncle Sam except a penny—from a nickel to a silver dollar.

"I watched one old lady put a thousand dollars in the back machine," said a bartender. "It took her three days to lose it all—and she was all worn out."

Some bartenders have a custom of serving free drinks to customers as long as they are keeping a slot machine busy. It's good business.

UNDER MONTANA law the slot machines are legal only in fraternal, benevolent or non-profit organizations. To get around this every saloon puts a sign over its battery of one-armed bandits such as this: "Thanatopsis club—for members only." But anyone can walk in and play them, no matter whether he can even pronounce Thanatopsis.

The legality of these subterfuges is being challenged in court. But the machines keep clicking—and they more than pay the overhead of many establishments.

"I have twelve machines in my place, and one week they took in $1,000," said one proprietor. "My cut was half of that—$500."

Glancing around to see what his wife wasn't watching, he took five silver dollars out of the cash register. He walked over and put them in the machine and lost them, one after the other.

"I know better than to play them myself," he said, half-apologetically. "But you know they kind of get you—even though you know you can't really beat them."

House, Senate Knit ECA Bill

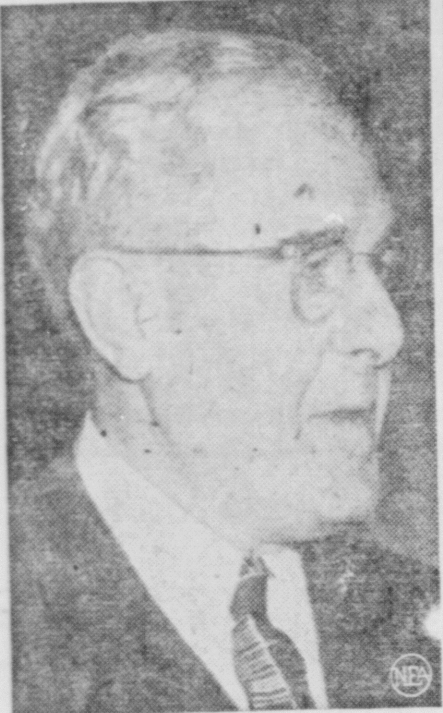

Breaking Down Trade Barriers Emphasized

WASHINGTON, May 11—(AP)—Senators and House members hope to finish writing a compromise foreign aid bill by tomorrow, after voting to set aside $1,200,000,000 for the job of breaking down Europe's trade barriers.

That action by Senate-House conferees was reported late yesterday by Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) of the Senate foreign relations committee. Connally is a member of the committee trying to adjust differences between separate measures passed by the Senate and House.

Both foreign aid bills would authorize a number of programs, the most important being a three-year Marshall plan costing close to $3,000,000,000. Actual cash for that and the other projects involved would have to be provided in a later measure.

Connally said the committee agreed yesterday to earmark at least $600,000,000 of the funds just for breaking down trade barriers. Economic Cooperation Administrator Paul G. Hoffman would have wide authority in deciding how to use this sum.

Another amendment, Connally said, would provide up to $600,000,000 for setting up a European Payments Union.

Connally said the conferees probably will reach final agreement on the measure Friday. It must then be approved by both the House and Senate before going to the White House for President Truman's signature.

BERLIN, May 11—(AP)—Soviet sector police arrested three women—two American, one British—Tuesday while they took photographs in East Berlin's Unter-Den-Linden. American authorities said today.

They are Miss Anne Bennett, Maumee, Ohio; Miss Marilyn Seefeld, Seattle, Wash.; Miss Marie Douglas, Lisburn, northern Ireland.

All three are members of the American Friends' (Quaker) service committee and work here with the United Nations' International Refugee Organization. Efforts by American author-

House Will Check Air Base Commissary

WASHINGTON, May 11—(AP)—The House armed services committee was reported today planning to send a special subcommittee to Wright-Patterson Air Base, Ohio, to determine whether Congress should order closing of the commissary there.

Rep. Brown (R-Ohio) wants the commissary closed.

He told the subcommittee last week the commissary competes unfairly with nearby grocery and other stores.

He accused Air Force officers of using a "phony" merchandising survey to justify continuance of the commissary. The Air Force said the survey was made with full cooperation of the neighborhood stores.

America's ice companies have a combined capital investment of nearly one billion dollars.

TEXAS RARITY—Ben Guill, above, a Pampa, Tex., real estate man, became the first Republican elected to Congress by Texans in 21 years. He defeated 10 Democrats in a special election to fill the seat vacated by Eugene Worley. Guill said he was elected because Panhandle Texans are fed up with President Truman.

Delays Hurt Crop Prospects

Winter Wheat Also
Below Predictions

WASHINGTON, May 11—(AP)—If it weren't for modern farm machinery, Old Man Weather might well have Americans worrying about this year's food production prospects.

The Agriculture Department reports bad weather has delayed the Spring planting season two or three weeks in the northern two-thirds of the country.

In past decades of the horse-drawn plow and planter, such delays often were serious. But high-speed tractors, multiple-plows and planters make it possible for farmers to catch up quickly, especially by working around the clock.

Crops hampered so far by unfavorable weather include wheat, oats, barley, cotton, corn and soybeans. The winter wheat crop may be the smallest since 1943 and about 195,000,000 bushels—with a farm value of nearly $400,000,000—below the Department's forecast last December.

Winter wheat prospects declined 74,000 bushels in April after dropping off 122,000,000 bushels between last Dec. 1 and April 1. Major losses were in the southern Great Plains, where dry weather and an infestation of green bugs plagued the crop.

But a reserve of 450,000,000 bushels from past big crops assures ample wheat supplies to meet indicated market demands.

The poor outlook for winter wheat and delays in seeding Spring wheat virtually assured farmers that they will not be obliged to produce the 1951 crop under rigid market quotas designed to curtail production.

This may be the first year since 1943 production of Winter and Spring wheat combined will fall below a billion bushels. The record was 1,364,000,000 in 1947.

3 Women Injured In Route 45 Mishap

Three Pennsylvania women were injured in a car-truck accident at 11:15 a. m. Wednesday on Route 45, six miles south of Salem.

State patrolmen said Mrs. Isabelle Wolfe, 55, of Monongahela lost control of her car as she rounded a curve and crashed into the rear of a state highway truck which was parked partially on the road.

Mrs. Wolfe suffered abrasions of the right leg and nose and chest injuries. Passengers Mrs. Margaret Brown, 67, of Bentleyville suffered lacerations of the face and bruises of the left arm, and Mrs. Elizabeth Bell, 81, of Monongahela received abrasions of the right leg. All were treated at City Hospital and released.

Patrolmen also arrested Charles D. Thomas, 21, of Beloit yesterday for driving without an operator's license. He appeared before Mayor Vincent and was fined $20 and costs.

Secret Service Gets 2 Key Men In Buffalo

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 11—(AP)—The U. S. Secret Service claimed today it had broken up a million-dollar counterfeiting syndicate that allegedly operated in 28 states and in Canada.

A printing press and plates were seized yesterday in a raid on a house in suburban Depew. Two men were arrested.

U. E. Baughman, chief of the Secret Service, said in Washington it was probably the most important crackdown against counterfeiting in years.

Secretary of the Treasury Snyder said the arrest of Matthew Zlodinski, 37, and Bernard Neun-er, 30, appeared to wind up the case.

More than 10 men had been arrested previously as principals in the syndicate. Sixty-four others have been charged with passing bogus bills in various cities.

Neuner, an artist for a lithographic firm, was accused of "manufacturing" plates used to print $500,000 in bogus Canadian money and about the same amount in American notes.

Zlodinski was alleged to have printed 34 separate issues of counterfeit $10 and $20 notes, drawn on 10 of the 12 regional Federal Reserve banks. The exceptions were the Federal Reserve banks at Chicago and Kansas City.

The press was in the basement of Zlodinski's home.

Arranged before U. S. Commissioner Boyce H. Butterfield here last night, the pair waived hearings. Butterfield set bond at $100,000 each.

Every home, every farm needs a spring clean-up day.

ALICE LANDABURY, 22-year-old Vassar senior, is object of an eight-state police alarm following her disappearance after leaving the Poughkeepsie, N. Y., campus for her family home in Princeton, N. J.

since he resigned in January. "God bless you in your sessions," was the official greeting of the northern Baptists to the southern Baptists at their convention today.

The southern assembly, which is holding its 93rd meeting north of the Mason-Dixon line for the first time, again will leave the traditional south next year when the convention meets in San Francisco—June 20-24.

The southern Baptists separated from the northern Baptists in 1845 over the question of slavery and other issues.

Barkley To Talk At Columbus Dinner

COLUMBUS, May 11—(AP)—Vice President Alben V. Barkley is due in Columbus tonight, his second appearance in Ohio in as many days.

Tonight he is due to address 1,500 Ohio Democratic leaders at the annual Ohio Jackson-Jefferson day dinner.

Sponsors of the dinner say Barkley's speech will launch the Democratic 1950 political campaign. Democratic candidates for various state offices from Gov. Frank J. Lausche on down will be guests.

Barkley left Ohio only early today, flying to Washington from Dayton to preside over a senate session before returning to the Buckeye state.

Last night he helped open Dayton's United Jewish Appeal drive. He said at a meeting:

"It would be a tremendous blow to India, Pakistan, Thailand, Burma, and other newly-freed nations and to the world if Israel should fail. It is a question that involves the Christians no less than the Jews."

Baptists Oppose Envoy To Vatican

CHICAGO, May 11—(AP)—The Southern Baptist convention doesn't want President Truman to send a presidential representative to the Vatican to succeed Myron Taylor.

The 10,000 delegates yesterday unanimously passed a resolution urging the President "to immediately terminate the office of representative of our government to the Vatican and the embassy created by such appointment in 1939."

Taylor's post has been vacant

FAVOR EMPLOYMENT CUT

WASHINGTON, May 11—(AP)—All Ohio Democrats opposed and all Ohio Republicans, with the exception of one who was not recorded as voting, favored an amendment to an omnibus appropriation bill cutting down on federal employment next year. The House adopted the amendment yesterday.

DECRIES LACK OF VOTING

COLUMBUS, May 11—(AP)—America should consider herself only 50 per cent democratic, because only half the eligible voters go to the polls, Albert A. Whitman, state director of industrial relations, said last night. He addressed the Ohio State University Democratic club and urged student to become interested in politics.

Heer Draws Life Sentence

OSU Killing Cited By Judge As Example

COLUMBUS, May 11—(AP)—A common pleas judge held up a former Ohio State University Freshman as an example to all students yesterday in sentencing him to life in prison for a fraternity slaying.

A jury convicted 21-year-old James D. Heer of Euclid, of second degree murder in the homecoming shooting of Jack T. McKewen of Norwood, O., in front of the fraternity house in which both lived.

Judge John R. King, obviously disturbed emotionally, talked to "the great student body" and to Heer before pronouncing sentence.

"There is a challenge to each and every one," said Judge King. "Rules and regulations are for the benefit, health and protection of the student body."

"Education, after all, points the way to life—how to live."

Judge King referred to the drinking which preceded the fatal shooting on the eve of the school's Homecoming football game on Nov. 12.

Trial testimony showed Heer had been drinking at a Delta Tau Delta fraternity house party for hours before the shooting.

Liquor is not allowed on the Ohio State campus or in fraternity and sorority houses. But, testimony showed students drank in the fraternity house and then went to a night club where liquor also was consumed.

The jury of 10 women and two men deliberated five hours and 53 minutes.

Judge King asked Heer if he had anything to say before sentence was pronounced. The former Marine replied:

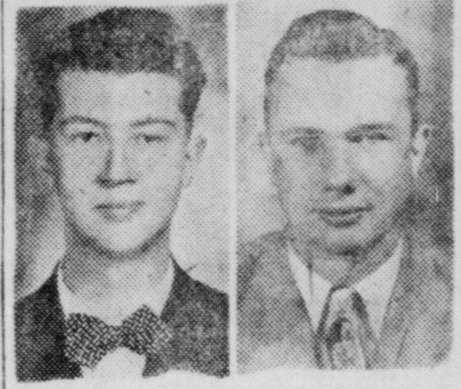

"I have only to say that in time perhaps this thing will be forgotten by most people, but for me it never will be forgotten."

It was the first time Heer, a former pledge of Delta Tau Delta, had spoken in court since his trial began May 1. He did not testify during the trial.

After he has served 20 years in prison, Heer will be eligible for a parole hearing.

CIO Rejects Delegate, Claim He's A Red

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 11—(AP)—The credentials committee of the CIO Steelworkers union has refused to seat a delegate to its convention, on the ground "he is a consistent follower of the Communist party line."

William Donovan of Cleveland, chairman of the committee, said he will report the action on the floor of the convention today.

Donovan said the delegate is Charles Fizer, 38, of Hammond, Ind. Fizer was a member of a 13-man delegation from Local 1011 of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube plant at Indiana Harbor, Ind.

Fizer, a past president and former secretary of Local 1011 told a reporter:

"I haven't done a thing in line with being a consistent supporter of the Communist party. I joined the party of my own volition and dropped out four years ago."

Fizer said he will appeal to Philip Murray, CIO president and head of the Steelworkers.

School Teacher On Liquor Board

Lausche Appoints
Henry County Man

COLUMBUS, May 11—(AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche today appointed Minor C. Kershner, Henry county Democratic chairman and school teacher, to the state board of liquor control.

Kershner, who is 51, will immediately succeed Walter W. Mitchell of Youngstown.

Mitchell resigned to accept the post of executive secretary of the National Alcoholic Beverage Control Association.

Kershner has been principal of Liberty Center High school, near Napoleon, since 1938. He also has been the school's athletic coach and instructor in history and political science.

He is the father of two children and is a trustee of Bowling Green State University.

The resignation of Walter W. Mitchell of Youngstown from the board reached the governor's desk yesterday afternoon. The governor said he promptly dictated a letter accepting the resignation.

The governor had asked Mitchell to resign after removing him as the board's chairman. Mitchell refused to leave the board.

He was selected as executive secretary of the National Alcoholic Beverage Control Association recently, and at that time he said he would resign as a liquor board member.

47-Year-Old County Track Meet In East Palestine Friday

Leetonia Softball League Now Underway

An eight-team softball league is now under way in Leetonia, having started play on May 1. The league will play each Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday throughout the season, winding up with playoffs on Labor Day.

The teams entered are: Little Jewelers, Woods Furniture, Sons of Italy, Dan Dee, Hillside Lunch, Morris Oil, American Legion and Leetonia K. of C.

Fights Last Night

NEW YORK (St. Nicholas Arena)—Joe Micelli, 144½, New York stopped John Defazio, 143½, Bayonne, N. J., 6.

OAKLAND, Calif.—John L. Davis, 137, Richmond, Calif., outpointed Sammy Angott, 144, Washington, Pa., 10.

Mrs. F. N. Phelps's horse, Sturdy One, is finicky about the weather and has an air conditioning unit in his stall at Belmont Park.

Bulldogs, Potters Favored; Young May Crack 3 Records

By BOB DIXON

Friday night at East Palestine the oldest county track meet in the state of Ohio will be held. It is, naturally, the 47th annual Columbiana County meet.

Taking part in the meet will be six schools—East Palestine, East Liverpool, Salem, Columbiana, Leetonia and Wellsville. The meet, held in Salem last year, was captured by the Liverpool Potters, for the first time since 1921. In all those intervening years, the title has bounced back and forth between Salem and East Palestine.

Over the past 10 years, Palestine's team, coached by the redoubtable Bill Ward, has won six county championships. Salem's teams have taken three ('44, '46 and '47) and the Potters have the odd one.

Liverpool's squad won by a scant margin in 1949, scoring 56½ points to Palestine's 54. Salem was a distant third with 31½.

The Potter team this year is well-balanced, having won the Eastern Ohio Scholastic Athletic Conference meet last Saturday. Coached by Merrill Hall, the Liverpool thincads have had a good season. They tied with Warren Harding High in a dual meet.

Outstanding for Liverpool are Tom Beadle, who does the 880 in 2:08 and the mile in about 4:50; John Evces, who turns the 220 in 24 seconds and the 440 in 55 flat; Bill Booth, a pole vaulter who goes over 10 feet; high jumper Gene Allton, whose best leap is 5' 6"; and two sharp relay teams. The mile team has broken 3:45 and the half mile quartet has been under 1:40.

THE FOCAL point of Friday night's meet will be Bill Ward's outstanding athlete, Glenn Young, fresh from a triple triumph in the Salem Night Relays. The Bulldog senior captured both hurdle events and topped the broad jump field last Saturday.

It is possible for him to break three records Friday. A year ago he set new standards in both the low hurdles and broad jump in the county meet. His broad jump mark is 21 feet, 11½ inches, a distance which he has bettered on occasions.

The low hurdle time, which Young set in 1949, is 25.9. He won the Night Relays lows in 25.6, but this was accomplished on the local track, which is much faster than the loose cinder track in East Palestine.

In addition, Young stands a good chance to lower the 15.4 second mark in the high hurdles.

His time last week was 14.9. Salem's chances don't appear too bright on the eve of the meet. It is likely that the Quakers will be cast in the role of "spoilers" tomorrow. Their points, if scored in the right places, could upset the apple cart of either Palestine or Liverpool.

Certain of points are the Quaker relay teams, Lige Alexander in the high jump, Jay England and Jim Callahan in the discus and Paul Provins in the mile.

The annual high point man trophy might as well be turned over to Young right now. He has captured the thing for two consecutive years, both times scoring three firsts and a second for 18 points. There is no one on any of the team rosters who can touch him.

The prelims in the meet will begin at 4 p. m., with the finals starting at 7. Dave Williams, as usual, is meet referee.

Three In Ninth Wins For Tribe

Unique Base Running Scores Tying Run

PHILADELPHIA, May 11—(AP)—The Cleveland Indians looked to the Big Bear, Mike Garcia, to win against the Philadelphia A's today and salvage victory from one of the four series the Tribe has played in its first eastern swing.

Garcia, knocked from the box on two previous occasions, will oppose Southpaw Alex Kellner, who won 20 games as a rookie last year and has a 2-1 record so far this campaign.

Cleveland ended a four-game losing string last night by getting a fantastic ninth-inning break to score three runs and win 6-4.

With two out, nobody on and trailing 4-3, Manager Lou Boudreau singled and gave way to fleet Roberto Avila as a pinch-runner. Jim Hegan rifled a line single to center where Sam Chapman slipped on wet grass and let the ball bounce off his glove. Avila took off from first and never stopped.

As Avila rounded third, Chapman made his throw, and Catcher Mike Guerra had the ball in his mitt when Avila was 20 feet from the plate. Sliding feet first, Avila hit Guerra's mitt and the ball rolled out of it to the ground.

THE BALL ended in the mud a few feet from Guerra, and Avila got to his hands and knees and crawled from atop the stunned catcher on to the plate, patting it jubilantly. That tied the score.

Bob Lemon cracked his second double to bring Hegan home from third with what proved to be the winning run. Lemon scored on a wild pitch before the inning ended.

The victory was Lemon's third against one defeat, although he was rapped for 11 hits in eight innings.

In addition to their three unearned runs in the final frame the Tribe got two unearned runs in the first inning on Pete Suder's fumble of a double-play grounder at second base. That filled the bases and Joe Gordon singled in the pair of runs.

Lemon's first double and a single by Dale Mitchell in the eighth accounted for the other Indian run.

The hit that put Philadelphia ahead in the eighth was a double to the left field corner by Barney McCoskey, batting for Pitcher Bobby Shantz. The blow brought in two runs.

Mud Lake Gets "Cleared Up"

County officers got a notice from the government not long ago, asking them to change the name of Mud Lake. Seems it's a pond, not a lake, by government standards. Because it lies entirely inside our town limits, we asked to do the name-changing ourselves. Figured we'd think up a brand-new name. Mud Lake's really not very muddy—sort of pretty, in fact.

County people said go ahead, so we held a Town Meeting. Everyone suggested something. Windy Taylor thought "Taylor Pond" would be nice, because his place borders it—for about 30 feet! But we finally decided to call it "Turtle Pond" in honor of the real owners.

From where I sit, naming that pond wasn't the most important thing in the world—but the way we did it was. Everyone offered his opinion and then the majority vote decided it. That's the way it should be—whether it concerns naming a pond, or having the right to enjoy a friendly glass of beer or ale—if and when we choose.

To Name LaMotta's Opponent This Week

NEW YORK, May 11—(INS)—Harry Markson, general manager of the International Boxing Club, Inc., announced today that he will be ready to name an opponent for Jake LaMotta before the end of this week.

"We have offered terms to Rocky Graziano," Markson added, "for a middleweight title shot in Yankee Stadium June 14. We also have talked turkey with Laurent Dauthuille, who once handed LaMotta a stiff beating before Jake was champion."

"And we have talked terms with Charley Fusari and Paddy Young, who meet in Madison Square Garden Friday night. We will give strong consideration to the winner of that bout."

Markson probably could name the opponent today, but he does not want to detract from his publicity for the Fusari-Young bout. So he probably will wait until Saturday before naming LaMotta's opponent.

"LaMotta," said Markson, "has told us he would fight anybody and so we anticipate no trouble in arranging the title fight."

Dauthuille, a Frenchman who speaks no English, dropped into town with his wife and one of his several managers, Col. John Grambach of Canada. Mme. Dauthuille said she did not mind her husband fighting because his fights produced "those so nice mink coats."

Grambach grumbled about Lew Burston, foreign representative for IBC, arranging a "fight cartel" whereby the IBC and foreign promoters exchange fighters."

To which Burston replied, "What's wrong about that? That doesn't prevent Dauthuille getting fights in his native Paris if he wants them. In fact, a French fight promoter even now is trying to arrange a bout for this summer between Dauthuille and Bob Villemain."

FELLER TO PITCH
PHILADELPHIA, May 11—(INS)—Righthander Bob Feller probably will hurl for the Cleveland Indians tomorrow night when the Tribe opens a long home-stand at the Lakefront stadium.

Feller is still seeking victory number three after being knocked out of the box on his last two outings.

Batting—Hegan, Cleveland, 404.

Musial May Hit .400 This Year

Last National Loop Hitter Was Bill Terry

Best bet of 1950 is Stan Musial to become the National League's first .400 hitter in 20 years.

Not since Bill Terry maced the ball for a .401 mark in 1930, has a National Leaguer ventured into the stratosphere. Now Musial, the St. Louis Cardinal slugger, is only one hit shy of .500 at .483.

First base seems to agree with Musial. Ever since Manager Eddie Dyer gave up on Steve Bilko and moved Stan from right field to first, he has drilled holes in the fences.

The big splurge really started when Musial returned to the lineup after a six-day layoff due to a sprained knee. Since his return Stan has 18 hits in 30 at bats or .533. And he hasn't reached Ebbs Field, his happy hunting ground. That comes next week.

Musial had his biggest night of the season yesterday with four singles and a walk in the Cards' 5-1 victory over the New York Giants behind Max Lanier's seven-hitter.

Brooklyn was knocked out of first place by the Cincinnati Reds, 4-0, on Ken Raffensberger's three-hit job. It was Raffy's first win, snapping the Reds seven-game losing streak.

The idle Phillies moved to the top of the heap for the first time since opening day. The Philadelphia game at Pittsburgh was rained out.

Chicago took advantage of four Boston errors to trim the Braves, 6-3. Doyle Lade needed help from Paul Minner to earn his first win at the expense of Warren Spahn. Rain washed out the big goings in the American League, postponing the Detroit-Boston game at Fenway Park and the New York Yankee-St. Louis Browns game. All concerned play doubleheaders today.

Nothing seems to stop that Washington club which clicked off its fourth straight, 7-6, over Chicago. The Senators broke loose for five runs in a big fifth inning rally sparked by Ed Stewart's pinch triple.

Batting—Stan Musial, Cardinals—Boosted batting average to .483 with perfect night against against New York—four singles and a walk.

Kiner Will Take Big Bat To Chicago

CHICAGO, May 11—(INS)—A distinguished weekend visitor in Chicago will be Ralph Kiner of the Pittsburgh Pirates, regarded as the young man most likely to succeed the late Babe Ruth as the author of the most home runs ever hit by an individual in a single season.

With the possible exception of Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox, Kiner is the most productive of the home run hitters now doing business in the major leagues.

However, the only person we have ever heard mention Williams as a possible successor to Ruth is Kiner himself.

Most of the other exponents of hitting power prefer to view Williams more as a wholesale collector of hits of all sizes than a specialist in home runs.

MOST OF the Pirates, and especially Manager Bill Meyer, were of the opinion during spring training that this would be Kiner's year. Unfortunately, the outfielder injured his hand during an exhibition game and his 1950 home run growth was retarded.

However, the big Pirate bludgeon wielder has made a fine start in his 1950 collection of homers. It is rather significant that No. 7 which gave him the National League's lead and temporarily tied him with Williams for the major league lead, was a clout which came with the bases filled and won a ball game from Brooklyn.

It was Ralph's eighth grand slam homer, and put him within four such of the National League mark of 12 set a long time ago by Rogers Hornsby.

Kiner has a long, long way to go for the major league record of grand slammers, since the late Lou Gehrig, operating for the New York Yankees, manufactured 23 base-loaded wallop before he ceased swinging a bat.

OHANLON HONORED
EAST LIVERPOOL, O., May 11—(AP)—The fourth annual award for athletic attainment by the East Liverpool Fraternal Order of Policemen has been given to Dick O'Hanlon, right tackle on the Ohio State football team that won the Rose Bowl game.

Pitching—Ken Raffensberger, Reds—Snapped Cincinnati's seven-game losing streak with three-hit shutout of Brooklyn, 4-0.

Stock Exchange

Indecision Seen At Opening

NEW YORK, May 11—(AP)—The stock market started off today in a mood of indecision.

In fast trade gains and losses, mostly fractional, were thoroughly scrambled.

Allied Chemical was one of the few to step out of a fractional pattern. Up 8 points yesterday, Allied fell back 1 1/2 to 247 1/2.

Railroad stocks got rolling slowly with initial sales mostly on the downside. Among the losers were Santa Fe, Pennsylvania and Chesapeake & Ohio.

U. S. Steel opened with a loss of 3/4 at 31 1/2 when a block of 10,000 shares changed hands.

On the plus side were American Telephone, Anaconda Copper, Chrysler, International Nickel, Lowe's, and U. S. Gypsum.

Republic Steel gained 1/2 at 32 1/2 on a trade of 2,000 shares following news of a boosted dividend.

of the boat shop. In 1930 he entered the experimental department.

His career closely paralleled the development of Mullins. In fact, his story is the story of Mullins. In 1940, when the company was earning the name of the "world's largest manufacturer of steel kitchen equipment," Billy was moved to the experimental department at Mullins' Plant Three for special cabinet work.

In April of 1943, during the Army-Navy "E" celebration, he was one of the Mullins employees to receive a war bond in recognition of his long services.

Billy watched Mullins grow and played a vital part in the company's development. He talks about Founder W. H. Mullins as though he were still alive. He played baseball with former president Gibson. And he saw every new development at the plant come about.

Giving the impression of being young at 72, Billy gives as his formula for good health "an active outdoor life." He has always been interested in bicycling, skating and fishing.

He sums up his career at Mullins in one simple statement, "Mullins has come a long way and it has always been a good place to work. I can't say that I'm sorry to leave because I've been working a long time now. But I'm glad that I've stuck with the company through the years."

'SPIC' Forum Answers Problems Of Residents

Residents with interior decorating and painting problems found their answers last night at the Operation SPIC forum at the Memorial building when Miss Esther Davidson, Cleveland decorating specialist spoke on the second of this week's three forums. Five local merchants erected displays and answered questions in connection with the program.

At 8 p. m. Friday at the Memorial building the third and final forum on structural repairs and remodeling will be held, with R. L. Radebaugh, Cleveland FHA official, and E. D. Cronon, Cleveland architect, as the panel speakers. Residents are urged to bring their problems to the two experts.

Six merchants will have booths and displays at Friday's forum. Dale Wilson and George Ryser are in charge of arrangements.

9 Polo Clubs To Plan Schedule At Dinner

Anthony "Tony" Sheen, president of the Salem club, is in charge of the meeting.

French Dressing Fails To Please French

This Time The Anti-Trust Lawyers Won A Case Against A&P

As almost everyone now knows, the anti-trust lawyers in Washington have brought a civil suit to destroy A&P. They ask the courts to order the dissolution of this company.

They say that this suit is based on the fact that they won a suit against us at Danville, Illinois, in 1946.

They did. In that case, Federal Judge Walter C. Lindley made a decision against A&P.

Immediately thereafter, in a letter explaining his decision, Judge Lindley wrote:

"I have not condemned the A&P system.
I have not made a finding which could be the basis for a suit of dissolution."

(So, now we have the anti-trust lawyers saying that their suit to dissolve A&P is based on Judge Lindley's decision; while Judge Lindley himself says his decision could not be the basis for a suit of dissolution.

In previous ads we told you about the cases against A&P which the anti-trust lawyers lost. We promised to tell you about this case they won. Here is the story of the Danville case.

What Judge Lindley Objected To

At Danville, the anti-trust lawyers made all of the charges which they are again making against A&P today. They were substantially the same charges they had made and dropped at Dallas, Texas, after four federal judges had objected to some of them as "inflammatory."

In his decision, Judge Lindley was critical of some of our activities. He threw some of the charges out of court. He did not make any decision on others.

He even took occasion to praise A&P for the efficient job of food distribution it had done.

Judge Lindley said:

"To buy, sell and distribute to a substantial portion of 130,000,000 people, one and three-quarter billion dollars worth of food annually at a profit of 1½ cents on each dollar, is an achievement one may well be proud of."

"No place in the world I take it are people so well fed as in the United States. Nowhere else, I suppose, do food distributors accomplish efficient distribution at so low a margin of profit. In contrast, we are told in other nations the problem is not one of an adequate diet but one of no diet at all."

But Judge Lindley did find us in violation of the Sherman Act. He based his ruling on the dual role played by our fresh fruit and vegetable buying subsidiary, the Atlantic Commission Company, whereby that organization acted both as buying agent for A&P and as selling agent for growers.

Judge Lindley said:

"If I assume for the purpose of disposition of this case that in general the policy of A&P was to operate within the law and attribute to defendants a desire to comply with the law, there still remains the conscious, knowing adoption by all defendants of a plan of action by the Atlantic Commission Company affecting every department of A&P and every retail store which cannot be squared with the intent and purpose of the act."

In his letter explaining the decision, Judge Lindley wrote: "I have condemned their practices through the Atlantic Commission Company."

Judge Lindley imposed fines totaling $175,000. When his decision was upheld by the Circuit Court of Appeals in Chicago, we paid the fines. This ended the case—but we did not stop there.

What We Did To Correct This

In the light of the decision, we immediately set about reviewing our activities to be sure that there could never again be any criticism of our operations.

First, the Atlantic Commission Company abandoned the dual role to which Judge Lindley objected and which he said was the basis of his decision against us.

We did this even though the Atlantic Commission Company had been licensed for many years by the United States Department of Agriculture to act as both a buyer and seller of fresh fruits and vegetables.

The Atlantic Commission Company now only buys for A&P. In other words, we stopped doing the thing which Judge Lindley said put us in violation of the Sherman Act.

We made additional changes in other methods of operation which Judge Lindley had questioned at Danville, even though he did not base his decision on them.

We did even more than this!

We went down to Washington and asked the anti-trust lawyers what else they thought we should do to conform to their new interpretation of the vague anti-trust laws.

The only answer we ever got was that we should break up this company!

Despite their claim that they were not opposed to A&P's size, they insisted that we destroy this size.

Despite their claim that they were not opposed to our manufacturing operations, they insisted that we get rid of our factories which produce many of the fine foods you buy at A&P.

Despite their claim that they were not opposed to our low prices, they insisted that we destroy many of the efficiencies that make these low prices possible.

In other words, they insisted upon the dissolution of A&P.

We were still trying to find out from the anti-trust lawyers what else they thought we should do to conform to the law when they filed the current suit to destroy A&P.

Why, Then, Do They Want To Put A&P Out Of Business?

Ever since this suit was filed, the anti-trust lawyers have been making damaging statements that could seriously hurt our business if they were believed by the public.

They say that we were found guilty at Danville of all the charges they are making today. This is not true. Judge Lindley did not sustain all of the charges of the anti-trust lawyers.

They say this suit is designed to enforce the law.

But A&P has clearly demonstrated its sincere desire to abide by the spirit, as well as the letter of the law.

They say they are seeking to "enjoin" A&P from engaging in certain "alleged" practices. Actually, the whole purpose of this suit is not to "enjoin" us, but to put us out of business.

They say that this suit for dissolution is based on the decision handed down by Judge Lindley in Danville.

But Judge Lindley has said of his decision: "I have not made a finding which could be the basis for a suit of dissolution."

What, then, is the real reason why the anti-trust lawyers want to destroy this company, which for 90 years has pioneered the methods of distribution which have given the American people more good food for their money?

Be Ready For A Souffle

DISCIPLINING the family is the first requisite for a good souffle. Every little hand and face must be washed, every bib tied—and Dad must fold up the newspaper and take fork in hand before the souffle comes to the table. A souffle doesn't wait—it must be eaten while it is hot and fluffy!

And so it is with the dish we give you today. Though this souffle with rice is better behaved than most, it must not stand if it is to be its best.

Dad may like a creole sauce or even tomato ketchup with this egg dish. Mother will probably want a fresh mushroom sauce when she serves it to "the girls" for lunch. It's good accompanied by broiled fresh tomatoes and broccoli hollandaise and it's good with a green salad. Indeed there are many meals in which Rice Cheese Souffle will be just right.

Ingredients—A dash of mono sodium glutamate if desired; a dash of cayenne

1/2 c uncooked rice
4 T butter or margarine
4 T flour
2 c milk
3 eggs, separated
1/4 t paprika

1 1/4 t salt
1/2 t dry mustard
4 T grated cheese (sharp cheese is best)

Preparing the Fluffy White Rice—Put 1/2 cup of white rice, 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1 cup cold water in a saucepan. Cover with a tight-fitting lid. Set over a hot flame until it boils vigorously. Then reduce the heat as low as possible and simmer for 14 minutes more. During that time the rice will absorb the water and come out deliciously tender. Remove the lid to permit the rice to steam dry. Lift rice with a fork to test its consistency. Never stir rice while cooking and the grains will be separate and tender.

Method—Make a sauce of butter, flour and milk. Cook until thickened. Beat egg yolks and add cooked rice, sauce, seasoning and cheese. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into greased casserole or shallow pan. Bake at 350 degrees F. for 35 minutes.

AFL Drive To Elect Democrats Progresses

PHILADELPHIA, May 11 — (AP)—The AFL drive to back "Fair Deal" Democrats in the November elections was gathering momentum.

The union's national executive council, in week-long sessions here, put its stamp of approval on a 10-cent-per-member assessment for the educational campaign of the Labor League for Political Education.

And the League, also meeting here, announced that it plans to launch a special drive in June and July to collect a $2-per-member assessment on AFL unionists for the League's political activity.

Both assessments were described by AFL President William Green at a news conference late yesterday as "voluntary."

Bill Of Fare For Junior

OOM, OOM, GOOD . . . Small portions intrigue baby.

MEAT PIE TREAT . . . Give him an individual serving

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Child Health Day, on May 1st, ushers in National Baby Week—a goodtime to check up on baby's fare. Both Baby and Junior Brother will respond to a cheerful mealtime atmosphere. It's important, too, to see that the young ones are seated comfortably, and that their spoons—and later forks and knives—are ones small fingers can manage.

Another important point is to serve small portions—then give them second helpings if they want them. Large portions are likely to discourage a young child. Boys and girls love foods served in individual dishes, so use your custard cups, ramekins and molds often. Here are some recipes for individual servings made with ever-convenient and nutritious baby foods.

Toddler's Meat Pie

Ingredients: 1 three-and-one-half-ounce can junior beef or veal or liver, 1/2 cup mashed potatoes seasoned lightly, butter or margarine.

Method: Butter small baking dishes. Place part of the mashed potato in bottom of the dish. Top with the chopped meat. Spoon remaining half of mashed potato around edge of dish, leaving a little of the meat showing. Dot with bits of butter or margarine. Bake in moderate (375 F.) oven until top is lightly browned. Makes 1 large or 2 small servings.

Note: Strained meat may be substituted for the younger child; or a few tablespoons of leftover vegetable may be mixed with the meat.

Fruit Ring Mold With Quick Custard Sauce

Use orange juice as part of the liquid in preparing a fruit flavored gelatin, or make the rings from unflavored gelatin using orange juice as part of the liquid. When mixture has partly thickened stir in 1 four-and-one-half ounce can strained peaches and one (same size) can apricots with farina; pour into small ring molds and chill until firm.

For the Quick Custard Sauce dilute baby-food custard pudding with a little milk or use "as is." To make the two-tone ring molds shown in the photograph divide the gelatin mixture into two parts, using a dark fruit such as strained prunes in one portion. Spoon mixture with light fruit—such as apricot-applesauce—into mold first and when set top with the darker mixture, so the latter becomes the base of the dessert when unmolded.

Men Really Go For Pork Chops

EXPERIENCED cooks know that pork chops may be depended upon for satisfying serving any time. But for a tempting variation, fill plump pork chops with a savory bread stuffing.

For the bread stuffing, two cups of toasted bread, crumbs are combined with 1/4 cup finely chopped onion and 1 tablespoon of chopped green pepper. The mixture is seasoned with celery salt and combined with 1/2 cup milk and one slightly beaten egg.

Chopped celery may be added to this stuffing if desired. Or for a complete change, pork chops may be filled with a whole kernel corn, cracker crumb and green pepper combination.

Fruits present even more stuffing possibilities. Sliced tart apple may be used alone or combined with prunes. Dried apricots and raisins are equally as appealing with the flavor of pork.

When chops are to be stuffed it is best to choose double thick rib chops. A pocket is made in each chop by cutting from the side along the bone. Cut from this side, the edges hold together, partially closing as the chops cook. With the chops filled, they are browned on both sides, covered and either cooked in a mod-crate oven (350 F.) or on top of the range for about 45 minutes to one hour.

If you are redoing a kitchen, or planning a new one, be sure to allow about 14 inches between wall cabinets and the tops of counters. This distance insures clearance for electric mixers and other tall utensils.

If meat sticks when you are cooking it in fat in a skillet, the chances are the fat was not hot enough before you added the meat or that there is not sufficient fat in the pan.

Very often paint, varnish and enamel stains can be removed by washing with soap and water. Older stains may require softening first with oil, lard or butter.

Facts On What We Eat

RETAIL beef, pork and lamb prices climbed as much as four cents a pound in many marketing centers this week. And wholesale advances indicated more mark-ups were likely by this weekend.

POULTRY PRICES changes were irregular and small, for the most part. Eggs and dairy products held about steady.

SNAP BEANS, asparagus, beets, new cabbage and new potatoes, carrots, radishes and strawberries were in heavier supply and cheaper in most places. Broccoli, cauliflower, golden heart celery, cucumbers, peppers and spinach edged upward.

Heavier shipments of California lettuce, expected within a few days, probably will push prices of that salad staple somewhat lower, produce men said.

Wholesalers attributed the upswing on most meat items to brisk consumer demand rather than to any important change in the supply picture.

Kenneth Sherman, agriculture department marketing specialist in New York, said buying in the past several days was in the heaviest in many weeks. Extension of unseasonably cold weather in many large consuming areas probably was a major factor, he added.

MID-SPRING FRUIT NOTES: The first Florida watermelons of the year to reach northern city markets arrived this week. Prices were seasonably high, though—around 12 to 14 cents a pound at retail.

North Carolina was sending her first strawberries of the season far northward, too. Unfavorable wet weather in Louisiana and Florida lowered the quality of many berries reaching market this week from earlier sources.

plentiful foods list for this week. It said the U. S. last summer harvested the biggest crop of dry beans on record—more than 20,000,000 bags of 100 pounds each—and this spring we have almost enough beans on hand to supply usual demand for a whole year.

The Dun & Bradstreet wholesale food price index this week made its sharpest jump since last fall—advancing 10 cents from a week ago to $5.83. The figure, which compared with $5.67 a year ago, represents the total cost at wholesale of a pound each of 31 foods in general use. Sixteen foods were higher this week—only four lower.

Home-Baked Fan Tans

THE fact that there's nothing like home-baked bread and rolls is further evidenced these days by the overwhelming popularity of half-baked products that are being sold all over the country. These are the rolls you buy partly baked and put in your own oven for a few minutes to finish and brown.

These good treats run the gamut of all the old favorites—Parker House rolls, clover leaf and fan tans are but a few. And they all send the heavenly aroma of home-baking wending its way from the oven to whet appreciative appetites.

But these half-baked goodies aren't yet available in every community. What's more, the satisfaction of working with a yeast dough—kneading it, seeing it rise and shaping all the interesting variations of loaves and rolls—is missing.

If you've never made yeast breads, don't be afraid to start. It may sound oh-so-difficult, but is really an easy-do. Try these Fan Tans following each step of the recipe carefully and see for yourself. They'll be popular—and you will, too.

Fan Tans
 ¾ c milk
 ¼ c sugar
 2¼ c t salt
 4½ T shortening
 ¾ c warm (not hot) water
 1 package dry yeast, or 1 cake yeast
 4½ c sifted all-purpose flour
 Scald milk. Stir in sugar, salt and shortening. Cool to lukewarm. Pour water into large mixing bowl, then sprinkle or crumble yeast over water. Let stand until dissolved (5-10 minutes for dry yeast). Stir. Add lukewarm milk mixture. Stir in 2¼ cups flour and beat until smooth. Store in remaining flour until dough comes away from sides of bowl. Turn out dough on lightly floured board. Knead until dough is smooth and satiny, and until it doesn't stick to the board as you knead it. Place in greased bowl and brush top lightly with melted shortening. Cover with clean towel; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour and 25 minutes. When doubled in bulk, punch down and turn out on lightly floured board; divide in half. Roll out each half into an oblong about 17x10x½ inches. Brush generously with melted butter or margarine. Cut crosswise into pieces 1½ inches wide. Place cut-side up in greased muffin pans. Cover with clean towel; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until double in bulk, about 1 hour. Bake in moderate oven (400 F.) about 20 minutes.

A quick way to make chili con carne is to use canned kidney beans; the liquid that comes with the beans should be added, too.

A Family Favorite, Do-Nuts

THOSE fluffy French doughnuts which are served in restaurants aren't a chef's secret! They can be made easily right in the home fry kettle and are a delightful family dessert or between-meal snack.

One secret of making French doughnuts that are fluffy and evenly browned is to heat the frying fat to exactly the right temperature. A convenient and sure way is to use one of the new stainless steel deep frying thermometers. These thermometers have dial-type faces plainly marked with frying temperatures. The face is attached to a stainless steel stem which is fastened to the kettle by an adjustable clip.

Since the doughnuts are hollow inside, they may be filled with whipped cream squeezed through a pastry tube. Or they may be served plain, sprinkled with powdered sugar, or glazed with a thin powdered sugar icing.

French Doughnuts
1/2 c butter or margarine

- 1 c boiling water
- 1 c all-purpose flour
- 1 T sugar
- 1/4 t salt
- 4 unbeaten eggs

Add butter to boiling water and stir until melted. Add flour, sugar and salt all at once. Cook, stirring hard, until a ball of dough is formed that does not stick to the sides of the saucepan. Remove from heat and beat in eggs, one at a time. Beat thoroughly after each egg is added. Keep beating until the dough is very thick. Fill pastry bag with dough and form three-inch circles on greased squares of wax paper. Slip the circles off the paper with a spatula into hot deep fat heated to 370 degrees F. Cook about three or four minutes (a few at a time) until the doughnuts are puffed and delicately browned. Drain on absorbent paper.

Doughnuts

- 3 1/2 c sifted all-purpose flour
- 4 1/2 t baking powder
- 1/2 t cinnamon
- 1/2 t nutmeg
- 1/2 t mace
- 1 t salt
- 3 T shortening
- 1 c granulated sugar
- 2 eggs, well beaten
- 1 c milk
- 1/2 c minced nuts (optional)

About 1/2 c sifted all-purpose flour
Sift together first 6 ingredients. Work shortening with spoon in medium bowl until creamy. Add sugar gradually, while continuing to work until light. Add eggs; beat well with spoon. Add flour mixture alternately with milk, blending well with spoon after each addition. Add nuts and enough of 1/2 cup flour to make soft, easily handled dough. Chill 1 hr. or longer. Fill cylinder of doughnut maker, and press out as directed. Or roll dough on a floured board to 1/2-inch thickness, and cut with floured doughnut cutter.

Fry doughnuts in fat or salad oil heated to 370 F. until golden brown.

Fancy Dress For Meat Loaf

Double-Staffed Meat Loaf

- 2 pounds ground beef
- 1 1/2 t salt
- 1/4 t pepper
- 1 small onion, chopped
- 1 T Worcestershire sauce
- 1 c dry bread crumbs
- 2 beaten eggs
- 1/2 c tomato juice
- 1 c soft bread crumbs
- 1/2 t salt
- 1/2 t sage
- 1 T grated onion
- 1/4 c melted fat or drippings
- 1 c tomato juice

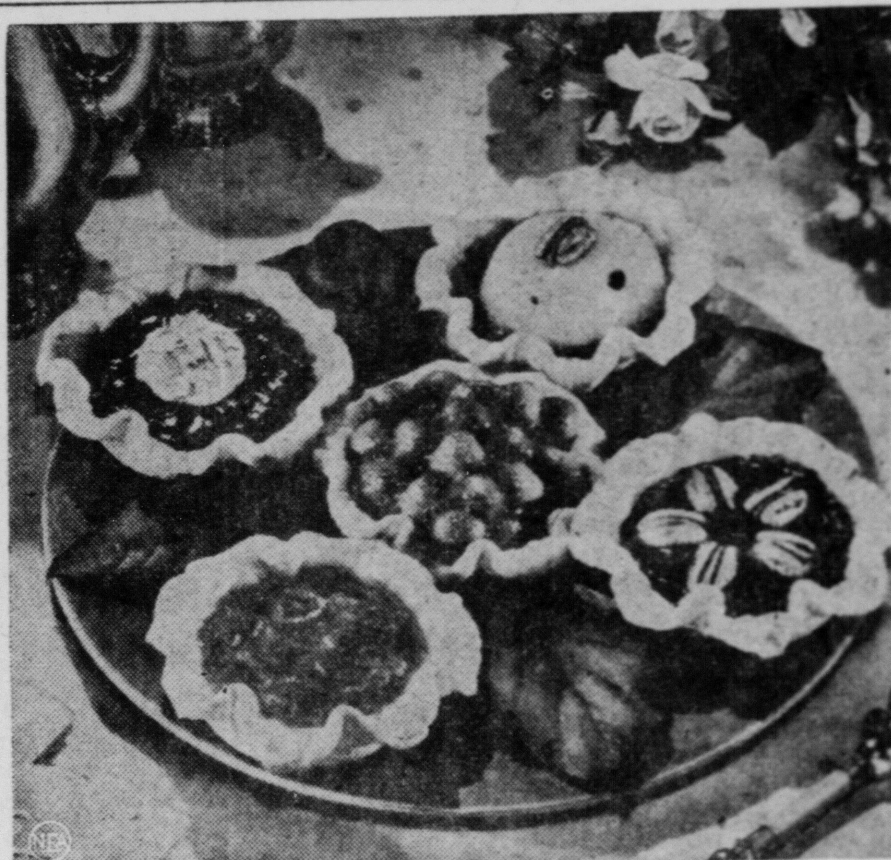

Thoroughly combine meat, seasonings, onion, Worcestershire sauce, the dry bread crumbs, eggs and 1/2 cup tomato juice. Place half meat mixture in greased 4 1/2 by 8 1/2-inch loaf pan. Make bread dressing by combining soft crumbs, salt, sage, onion and fat; spread the dressing over meat. Top with remaining meat mixture. Pour tomato juice over loaf. Bake in slow oven (300 F.) for 1 1/2 hours. 6 to 8 servings.

Fluffy Bread Stuffing

Ingredients: 6 slices day-old bread, 1/4 cup butter or margarine or other fat, 2 tablespoons finely diced onion, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/16 teaspoon pepper, 1/4 teaspoon poultry seasoning and celery salt; mix well. Use to stuff 3 1/2 pound fryer chicken, putting some stuffing in neck as well as in cavity.

Prunes, apricots, and dried pears make a delicious dried fruit compote. Use part orange juice for the liquid in which the fruit is cooked and add a slice or two of lemon, too. Serve with a topping of sour cream if desired.

Never use hot water first when trying to remove meat juice or gravy stains. Cold or lukewarm water should be used first until coloring is dissolved. Then use hot water.

"MAKE-YOUR-OWN" MIX is ideal for tender fruit tarts—a dessert treat for Mother's Day dinner.

The Cookbook

By GAYNOR MADDON

New Mix Is Boon To Baking Fans

PASTRY, cream puffs, biscuits and desserts are just a few of the 77 baked products you can make from one basic homemade mix. It will be introduced tomorrow. You make it in advance, store it in a closed canister or fruit jar on the pantry shelf. No refrigeration necessary. It stores well.

Here's the know-how: The jobs of measuring shortening and sifted flour, so disliked by the homemaker, are all done at once in advance. The versatile fresh basic ingredients are then ready for quick transformation into a main dish, hot bread or one of dozens of desserts to add new interest to menus and to complete the meal.

Make-Your-Own-Mix
(Yield: about 13 cups)
Two cups rich shortening, 9 cup (4 tablespoons) double-acting baking powder, 1 tablespoon salt. Combine sifted flour, baking powder and salt. Stir well. Sift into a large bowl or large pan or onto heavy paper. Add shortening. Use finger tips or pastry blender to distribute shortening throughout dry ingredients until the mixture resembles coarse cornmeal. The Make-Your-Own-Mix is now ready to use or store in a closed canister on your pantry shelf.

Tender-Quick Pastry

(Yield: two 8-inch crusts)
Two cups Make-Your-Own-Mix (do not pack), 1/4 cup butter or fortified margarine, 1/4 cup hot water (scant).
Heat butter or margarine in water until melted. Sprinkle over the Mix, blending with a spatula or fork. Turn dough out on waxed paper. Shape into a ball and cover with the paper. Chill at least 30 minutes in refrigerator. Roll out for pastry as needed.

Cream Puffs

(Yield: 5 large puffs)
One cup Make-Your-Own-Mix (do not pack), 1/4 cup boiling water, 2 eggs.
Add Mix to boiling water in a saucepan. Stir over low heat about 1 minute until dough is smooth, follows the spoon and forms in a ball. Remove from heat immediately. Add eggs, one at a time stirring and beating. Beat vigorously. Drop by spoonfuls on baking sheet.

Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) for 15 minutes. Then reduce heat and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 20 minutes more. Let stand in warm oven (with door open) about 10 minutes to dry out. Note: For 5 medium puffs use 1/2 cup Mix, one-third cup water and 1 egg. (NEA Service, Inc.)

What's-What About Coffee

AN OFFICIAL of the National Coffee Association told its restaurant and hotel committee this week that restaurants which try to pinch pennies by diluting coffee with water are damaging not only their own business but will cause the coffee industry harm eventually. Such "shortsighted" methods to stretch coffee supplies have increased considerably since coffee prices rose sharply last winter, the NCA spokesman said.

The coffee industry also frowns on restaurants' charging excessive prices, a roasting firm source told newsmen. He said the cost of coffee to eating places had risen about 30 cents a pound, but that restaurants which increased the menu price of coffee just five cents a cup were hiking the consumers' cost by $2.50 a pound.

Green peas are delicious served in a mushroom sauce; add a little grated onion to the sauce to enhance the mushroom flavor.

The Modern Farm

Farmers Still Unable To Find Out Extent Of Frost Damage

Farmers and orchardists are still unable to determine the extent of the damage caused by the severe frost which hit this district Monday.

Some fruit growers report extensive damage to peach crops, while others estimate only little damage to the same fruit.

Raymond G. Yeager, who owns a farm southeast of Salem, said his peach and apple crops escaped with only slight damage. Other growers report as high as 95 per cent losses.

J. C. Hedge, Mahoning County agriculture agent, and W. H. Matthews, retired Salem orchardist, after consulting district growers, report that the early apple and peach varieties and cherries are the worst damaged.

Mr. Matthews said the site of the orchards seemed to reflect the intensity of the freeze.

"Apples receiving the brunt of the frost damage were the Ohio Nonpareil and McIntosh varieties," Mr. Matthews said. He went on to say that the story of the fruit losses could be told more fully in a week.

W. C. Livezey, manager of the Mahoning County Experimental Farm, near Canfield, said cherries, asparagus and peaches on low ground were slightly damaged. "Fortunately," he said, most crops have not been planted.

The temperature at the farm registered 28 degrees Monday. The low in Salem that day was 22.

Spinach, carrots, onions and lettuce are up. All of these are somewhat resistant to frost damage but they as well as strawberries may be nipped so that harvesting may be delayed.

vesting may be delayed. Gardens already are behind schedule because of the cold and wet spring. This will make the frost effect less severe.

In home gardens, principal damage was to asparagus which is too tender to stand such cold weather. Most stalks above ground were killed.

In a normal year, many home gardeners would have had their beans up and some of their tender plants like tomatoes and peppers in the ground. This year the season has been delayed to such an extent that few of these hot-weather vegetables were planted.

L. H. Copeland, weather observer, said Monday's temperature of 22 degrees in this area was not the coldest on record. He said there have been several years when the mercury dropped to 20 degrees.

The Canton area, hit by a temperature of 27 degrees Monday morning, reported it to be the coldest May 8 in 64 years of weather recording.

Weekly Fruit Spray Advice Given For Area

The Wooster Agriculture Extension Service today issued a warning to orchardists in Van Wert, Wooster, Crawford and Salem areas.

Apple varieties in these areas that were sprayed last week at late delayed dormant or early pre-pink should be watched closely. If rain is forecast and the blossom buds have begun to, or have already separated, a sulfur spray is recommended. In the event of no rain, all varieties should be sprayed as close to bloom as possible.

56 Veterans Complete Farm Course In Lisbon

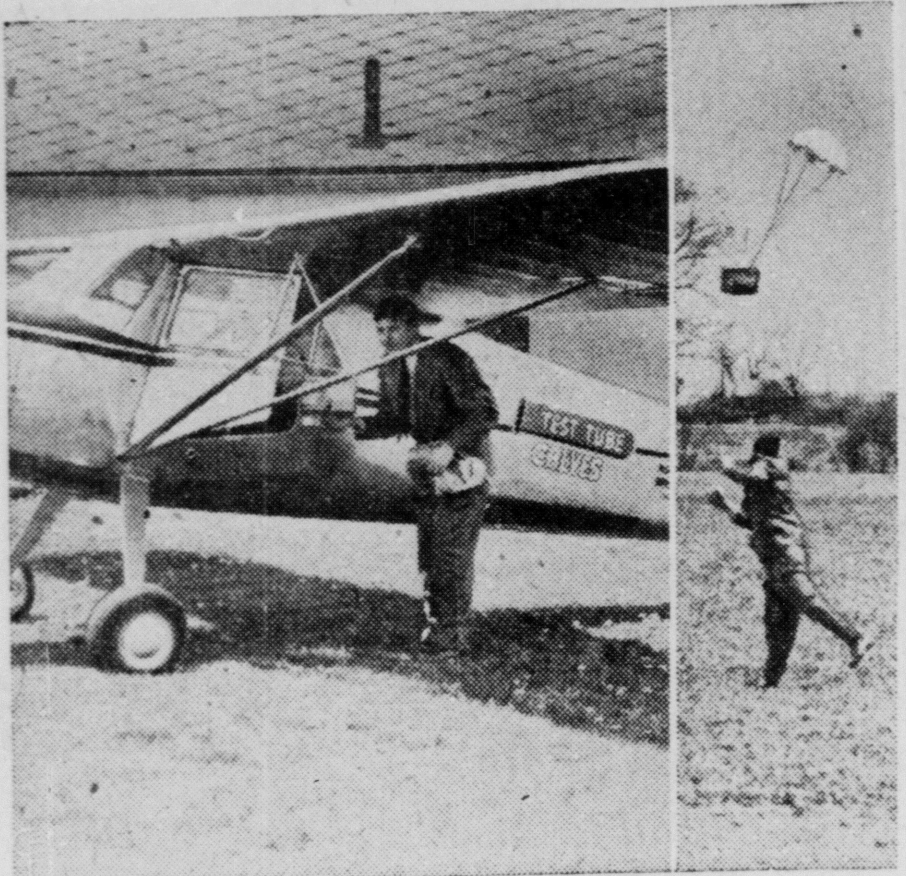

Graduation exercises for Columbiana County veterans of World War II who have completed the "Institutional on Farm Training" will be held in the Lisbon High School auditorium at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday, May 16.

Columbiana County had the first approved schools for this training in Ohio, at Lisbon and New Waterford.

John C. Davis, farm editor, Cleveland Plain Dealer, will be the speaker. "Let's Look Ahead," will be the title of his speech.

Fifty-six men will receive a certificate of completion of the training program. Of these the following will be completing the maximum of four years of training:

Martin Adams, R. D. 4, Salineville; Donald Andrews, R. D. 3, Lisbon; Robert Andrews, R. D. 3, Lisbon; Cecil Bennett, R. D. 1,

THE AIR AGE has arrived for 80,000 cows in 30 north central Ohio counties. Using a fleet of three planes, the Northern Ohio Breeders Association flies fresh bull semen from its headquarters at Tiffin and delivers it by parachute to 56 technicians on regular schedules three days a week. Service is available to cows of 17,000 association members on five dairy and three beef breeds.

Hanoverton; Orvan Carter, R. D. 4, Salineville; Vernon Farmer, R. D. 4, Lisbon;

Don Humphrey, R. D. 1, Kensington; William McDevitt, R. D. 5, Lisbon; John Ward, R. D. 1, East Palestine; Dwain Hawkins, R. D. 1, New Waterford; William Persohn, R. D. 2, Wellsville; J. Vernon Rupert, R. D. 1, Columbiana.

The public is invited and urged to attend graduation ceremonies.

Many Herds Yet To Get Test For Brucellosis

Dr. R. C. Brager of the Division of Animal Industry reports that there are many small herds of one, two, and three cattle in Columbiana County which as yet have not been tested for Brucellosis since the area program began Feb. 1, 1948.

He said that according to the Brucellosis law all dairy and breeding cattle in Columbiana County must have a blood test if they have not been tested for Brucellosis since Feb. 1, 1948.

The Ring Test used on milk samples is not a substitute for the blood test, but is used to detect infected herds. The blood test is the official test.

The Ring Test is in the experimental stage and is known to give a false, positive or doubtful reaction in a few herds.

Ohio Farm Elevators Do Best Business In 1949

Farmer-owned elevators in Ohio did their best year of business in history during 1949.

K. D. Peterson, extension marketing specialist at Ohio State University, says the country elevators handled a record amount of corn. This included a large share of the 1949 crop, and a great deal of the 1948 crop which was too wet to market in 1948.

He anticipates, however, that these same elevators will experience a definite decline in business volume and income this year, unless managers make cuts in expenses. Approximately 60 percent of all elevator expense is for labor.

Farm Essay Contest Won By Tiffin Girl

COLUMBUS, May 11—A Bettsville High School senior has written the best essay on soil conservation in Ohio.

She is Leanne Omwake of R. D. 3, Tiffin, who received a check for $200 from the Ohio Farm Bureau, sponsors of the state Soil Conservation Contest, at a banquet in Columbus last week.

Seven district winners were on hand for the banquet to receive engraved plaques and to await the announcement of three state winners. Robert E. Myers, Barnesville, won second place and was presented with a check for $100; while Ray Sarafin, Huntington won $50 for taking third place.

Presentation of the awards was made by Dr. Jonathan Forman, vice president of the Friends of the Land. Judges for the contest were: Earl McMunn, editor of the Ohio Farmer; A. W. Marion, state director of natural resources; and L. L. Rummell, Dean of the College of Agriculture at Ohio State University.

Nearly 200 people were on hand for the banquet, including the seven essayists, their parents, school principals, county superintendents of schools, county soil conservationists, county agents, and officials from the local Farm Bureaus.

The four other district winners who received engraved plaques were: Willis Ridenour of Stonecreek; Lucille Rivers of Manchester; Lee Spencer Garrett of Uniontown; and Pauline Koch of Wapakoneta.

Miss Omwake's essay, "Start Now, Seneca County," will be published in the Ohio Farm Bureau News magazine as well as many other farm publications throughout the state and nation.

Tests Indicate Bees Increase Bean Crop

If bees have invaded your beans this spring, you can expect more beans come harvest time.

This is the word from V. E. Keirns, extension specialist in vegetable crops at Ohio State University, who reports on tests conducted last year with lima beans in New Jersey.

Dr. Ordway Starnes, the New Jersey entomologist who conducted the test, says bees can increase lima bean production by as much as a third.

Beans are self-pollinating and also may be cross-pollinated by bees. Dr. Starnes tells how several colonies of bees were placed within flight range, about a mile, of a field in which several plantings of beans were made.

Cages were placed around beans in several areas to keep bees away from the bean blossoms. It was found where bees could get to the bean plants, more pods were produced and these pods contained more beans. Increase in production on all plantings where bees were available amounted to more than 30 percent.

Keirns says many small lima bean growers in Ohio are fortunate in having small fields with nearby wood lots which may contain wild bees. Or some of their neighbors may keep bees.

Where fields are large and wild bees not so plentiful, he suggests growers consider bringing in some bees in an effort to increase production.

Expert Says Wheat Crop To Show Drop

COLUMBUS, May 11—"The outlook for 1950 grain crops is not promising at this time," says Marvin D. Losey, manager of the grain division, Farm Bureau Cooperative Association, in the May issue of the Ohio Farm Bureau News magazine.

"While there is likely to be plenty for all needs as well as some carry-over, we are not expected to have so-called bumper crops which would spell low prices for producers," Losey said. "The recent government wheat crop forecast, based upon conditions as of April 1, estimates a winter wheat crop of 764 million bushels, or about 13 per cent less than last year's so-called bumper crop. This will be the smallest in the past six years," he said.

Losey pointed out that the sharp drop can be traced largely to the Southern Great Plains (parts of Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas). He writes:

"This section has been without rainfall for a period of six months. Dust storms and greenbug infestation has ruined many thousands of acres. The Department of Agriculture states that the greenbug plague is the worst in modern farming history and there is a possibility that the parasites may spread to areas not now infested."

The situation in Ohio is considerably better than in the nation as a whole. Present indications are that wheat will be above average, although perhaps not as good as last year's record crop."

Although such root vegetables as carrots and beets may be bought with the once-a-week grocery order it's a good idea to buy green vegetables for salads twice a week. The salad greens do not keep as well as the root vegetables.

Trembling, Sweating Hands
Clue To Treatment Of Illnesses

NEW YORK, May 11—(AP)—How much your hands sweat and tremble gives clues on how to treat some illnesses, a medical exhibit shows.

The answers help tell whether your ailments are really physical, or are caused by anxiety or emotions.

Everyone's hands sweat, and everyone's hands tremble a bit. But a lot of sweating and a lot of trembling probably means you're the anxious type or an emotionally bothered person, the study shows.

The anxiety makes many people believe they have heart troubles or other physical ills. They have pains or other signs, but there actually is nothing organically wrong with them.

The exhibit is being shown by Dr. Jacob J. Silverman, heart specialist of Staten Island hospital, to the New York State Medical Society meeting in the Hotel Statler.

Dr. Silverman set up ways to measure the sweating and trembling.

He takes fingerprints of sweating. The fingers are dabbed with a tincture of iron, and then placed on paper treated with tannic acid. Moisture from sweating makes the fingers leave ink blotches on the paper. The more sweating there is, the darker the ink marks.

Trembling is measured by a machine that records the vibrations of the fingers as wavy lines. The important thing, he said, is how high the waves lines are, not now fast the fingers tremble.

The two records are additional clues in spotting people whose heart troubles are emotional, he said. The treatment then is to reassure them, help them solve emotional problems, or by other psychiatric aids.

This kind of emotional trouble, or anxiety state, was the most common medical problem in the army. Dr. Silverman said. And it also is one of the most common problems among civilians.

Your hands are different from any other part of your body in their sweating. The amount of hand sweating doesn't increase as the temperature goes up though sweating from other parts of the body will increase, he said. But sweating of hands usually increases if you are given a tough problem to solve.

Drugs that calm the nerves often reduce the excessive sweating and trembling of anxious people.

Pupils To Paint Mural
For Magazine Office

An honor and an invitation came to Salem High School art students this week.

"Student Life," magazine of high school honor societies, published by the National Education Office in Washington, D. C., sent a letter to Mrs. Ethel Headrick, school art teacher, informing her the activities of the art students have come to their attention through the Quaker weekly.

Local art students have been commissioned to prepare a mural to be placed on a wall at the magazine office. Mrs. Headrick said Donald Getz has started the preliminary work for the mural. School social life will be the theme and it will be done in permanent water paints on wall board.

PASSPORT REVOKED—Chicago atomic scientist Edward Corson, above, was stopped from sailing to France from New York by the State Department, which revoked his passport, explaining merely that it was "in the national interest." The 28-year-old physicist said he was surprised by the action, which will prevent him from delivering a scheduled lecture at the French Academy of Science.

A few other high schools throughout the country also have been invited to contribute murals. All are to be finished by the end of the school semester.

Hubby Turns Moslem

Princess Fatemeh
To Regain Standing

PARIS, May 11—(AP)—Persian Princess Fatemeh and her American husband paved the way to peace in Iran's royal family with a second — and Moslem — wedding ceremony here Wednesday.

Fatemeh, sister of the Shah of Iran, revealed also that her 25-year-old bridegroom, Vincent Lee Hillier of Los Banos, Calif., had abandoned Christianity last Sunday and accepted her own Moslem faith.

The couple was married first in a civil ceremony in Rome early in April. The angry Shah stripped the young and beautiful princess of her royal prerogatives.

He said he would restore the privileges if the pair went through a Moslem ceremony.

Among the guests at the wedding was Movie Actress Rita Hayworth. She herself went through the Moslem ceremony last year with Aly Khan.

BEETLE OUTLOOK GIVEN

Most areas infested with Japanese beetles in Ohio in 1949 may be expected to have even more beetles in the summer of 1950, reports J. B. Polivka of the Department of Entomology at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station. However, there may be fewer beetles in northeastern Cuyahoga County, the extreme western end of Lake County, and in the Dover and Toledo areas.

Now's the time to get ready for fighting insects in the 1950 garden.
